Report: Lecture on Menstrual Hygiene for Female Students

Introduction:

College organized a comprehensive lecture on menstrual hygiene for female students on 25th January 2019. The initiative aimed to educate and empower students with essential information regarding menstruation, hygiene practices, and menstrual health management.

Objectives:

1. To provide accurate and reliable information about menstruation and menstrual hygiene.
2. To address myths, misconceptions, and stigma surrounding menstruation.
3. To promote proper menstrual hygiene practices and menstrual health awareness among female students.
4. To equip students with the knowledge and resources necessary for maintaining menstrual health and well-being.

Lecture Highlights:

The lecture, conducted by Dr. Sneha Ayyar, an expert in reproductive health, covered various topics related to menstrual hygiene. It commenced with an overview of the menstrual cycle, explaining the physiological changes that occur and the significance of menstruation in women's health. The speaker addressed common myths associated with menstruation, emphasizing the importance of dispelling misinformation and fostering a supportive environment for open discussions.

Practical guidance was provided on menstrual hygiene practices, including the proper use and disposal of menstrual products, such as sanitary pads. Students were educated on the importance of maintaining personal hygiene during menstruation to prevent infections and discomfort. Additionally, the lecture highlighted the significance of access to clean water, sanitation facilities, and affordable menstrual products for ensuring menstrual health and dignity.

Interactive sessions allowed students to ask questions and share their experiences, facilitating an open dialogue about menstruation and related concerns. The lecture concluded with the distribution of informational pamphlets and resources on menstrual hygiene, empowering students with practical knowledge to make informed decisions about their menstrual health.

Outcomes:

The lecture received positive feedback from participating students, who expressed appreciation for the valuable information provided. Many students reported gaining a better understanding of menstruation and feeling more confident in managing their menstrual hygiene. The initiative contributed to breaking the silence surrounding menstruation and fostering a supportive environment for female students to address their menstrual health needs.

Recommendations:

1. Organize regular educational sessions on menstrual hygiene to reinforce knowledge and awareness among students.
2. Incorporate discussions on menstrual health into the curriculum to normalize conversations about menstruation.
3. Collaborate with health organizations and experts to provide access to menstrual health resources and support services.
4. Establish designated spaces for menstrual hygiene management on campus.

Conclusion:

The lecture on menstrual hygiene served as a crucial step towards promoting menstrual health and well-being among female students at College. By providing accurate information, dispelling myths, and fostering open dialogue, the initiative empowered students to prioritize their menstrual health.
