Cultural Report 2020-21

On March 20, 2021, our college hosted the Online Yuvak Mohostav 2020-21, celebrating youth talents and creativity virtually. The event showcased various performances and activities, fostering community engagement despite the challenges of distance.

In the academic year 2020-21, the college prioritized safety amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, adhering to precautionary restrictions. Physical gatherings were suspended, ensuring the well-being of students and staff. Despite challenges, the institution adapted, emphasizing virtual engagements and innovative approaches to maintain academic continuity while safeguarding health.
